Meeting Happenings:

President Russ once again opened the meeting with the clank of his cow bell! When Sergeant-at-Arms Rogers asked for Russ' $1, it seems Dina didn't give him his daily allowance and could not pay his rolling fine for losing the bell. Next week he owes $3.00!

President Russ presented incoming former Seaport Rotarians Pete Waller, Chris Moreno and Sharon Simas with their Sunrise Rotary badges.

President Russ reminded all that the Club is dark on the morning of March 23d, and on that date, a new member reception will be held at "856" in Lincoln Center South, from 6:00 to 8:00. It will be a good time to meet all of our new members and spouses, and for them to get to know us, too. Guests are $8.

Phyllis Klein was the vocational speaker for the day. She was born and raised in Baltimore, and has been in Stockton for 19 years. She is a Certified Senior Advisor working for asset protection for her clients. She likes to make a difference in people's lives. Phyllis is married, has two dogs and is a Past President of Stockton Seaport Rotary.

President Elect John Dierking shared his PETS experience and announced his theme for the year of his Presidency: "Have Fun!" Sounds good to me!

From the Board Meeting: Evia Moore has been granted a three-month leave of absence, and Julie Katana as withdrawn her membership. She is still going "gang busters" with the UOP Rotaract Club.

The Club Assembly was centered on the annual wine tasting. Eighteen wineries and ten caterers have confirmed. Jennifer Shipman is collecting silent auction prizes and each Club member is responsible for an item valued at $50 or more for the auction. Kreso asked that each of us plan to work at some time during the three-day obligation. Set-up starts Thursday afternoon, Friday and a few will be asked to finalize cleanup on Saturday morning. All members are to work at the event.

Village Oaks School Book Days

Don't forget to mark your calendars for the third Thursday of the month to help read books to the Village Oaks School children. Starting at 8:00-8:30. It doesn't take very long to read the book to the children and hand out books for them to take home. Try it! You'll like it!

President Russ, How do we handle the citywide Read In when we don't meet Tuesday morning? We can't forget John Tyler School.
